Mitzelfelt Honors High Desert's Top Businesses

VICTORVILLE – San Bernardino County Supervisor Brad Mitzelfelt today hosted a luncheon honoring the top 25 sales tax-producing businesses in the First District.

“Local businesses are the foundation of our economy,” Supervisor Mitzelfelt told attendees. “Our nation’s businesspeople – entrepreneurs and private business owners, are the ones whose innovation and hard work make our country a great place to live.”

Mitzelfelt acknowledged the important role county businesses play in supporting quality of life and ensuring that adequate public services are provided.

“The sales tax dollars your businesses generate are what make it possible for us to hire law enforcement officers and firefighters,” said Mitzelfelt.

Mitzelfelt thanked the businesses for their role in job creation and encouraged them to continue moving forward despite concerns about a slowing national economy.

“Our region has led the state in job growth, and our affordable and abundant land, coupled with our skilled workforce, will keep the High Desert a leader in economic growth.”
